Dear Ambassador Castro:

I share your joy at the recent release from prison of Alejandro Deutsch. I want to express to you my tremendous appreciation for the deep personal interest you have taken in the Deutsch case. I believe your conduct in this matter has been exemplary. Your work reflects exceedingly well on the President, his Administration, and our entire country.

Naturally, the tragic Deutsch saga will not have come to a happy conclusion until young Liliana is freed and permitted to join the rest of her family. I am confident you are doing all you can to expedite Liliana's release. Kindly keep me informed of any developments in her case.

With every good wish,

Sincerely,

Henry A. Waxman
